Important information

Your right to cancel

Please read the policy carefully. If, after reading the policy booklet, you decide that this insurance is not suitable for you, please return your policy to the address shown on your policy schedule within 14 days of receiving it. As long as you have not taken any trips, or you have not made any claim, or intend to make any claim, we will cancel your policy and give you your money back.

Cancelling your policy

We can cancel this policy by sending you seven days' written notice to your last known address. You can cancel the policy by giving us seven days' notice in writing, as long as you have not taken any trips, made any claim or intend to make any claim. We will not refund your premium unless you cancel the policy within 14 days of receiving it (see 'Your right to cancel').

Relevant Law

Under European Law, you and we may choose which law will apply to this contract. English Law will apply unless both parties agree otherwise.

Extending the period of insurance

If your return journey is extended beyond the final day of the period of insurance for reasons beyond your control, you will still be covered for:

- up to seven days if the delay is caused by transport for which you have a ticket; or
- up to 30 days if the delay is caused by you falling ill or being physically injured. In this case we may extend your period of insurance for longer still if the medical adviser considers it is medically necessary.

Excesses and limits of cover

• Excesses

You will have to pay a fixed amount (an excess) towards any claim you make under certain sections. These excesses are shown in your policy booklet under certain sections. The excess applies separately to:

- each person claiming; and
- each incident that leads to a claim.

• Limits of cover

Certain limits apply to each section of the policy. These limits are shown in the policy booklet under certain sections.

Stopover cover

If you are travelling to or from Australasia, Asia or Africa and you decide to break your journey by stopping over in other countries, you will be covered for a stay of up to 14 days in those other countries during the period of insurance.

Foreign and Commonwealth Office

The policy does not cover travel to areas where the Foreign and Commonwealth Office has advised against 'all travel'. If you are not sure whether there is a travel warning for your destination, please check with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (phone 020 7008 0232 or 0233 or visit their website at www.fco.gov.uk).

Medical conditions

After you have paid for this policy, you must tell us if you are diagnosed with:

- any heart condition, any circulatory condition (problems with blood flow, including high blood pressure) or any breathing condition (including asthma);
- any type of cancer;
- any joint and bone condition;
- any gastrointestinal (stomach) condition; or
- diabetes.

We will then decide if we can provide you with cover on your existing terms. We may ask you to pay an extra premium, add special conditions to the policy or exclude cover for that medical condition.

If we cannot provide cover for the medical condition diagnosed after you paid for the policy, or if you do not want to pay the extra premium, you can call us on 0845 246 0415 and make a cancellation claim if you have booked and paid for a journey that you have not yet made. Or, you can cancel your policy and we will send you a pro-rata refund, as long as you have not travelled or made a claim.

How to complain

If you ever feel that we have not kept our promise, we will do everything possible to deal with your complaint quickly and fairly. The easiest way to complain is to give us a call. If you have a complaint about a claim, please call our Claims Department on the number shown on your travel claims documents. For all other complaints, please phone us on 0845 246 0489.

If you want to write and your complaint is about a claim, please write to the Head of Incident Services at the address shown on your claims documents. Please send all other complaints to the Head of Sales and Customer Service at the address shown on your schedule. This will help us to deal with your complaint quickly.

Our staff will try to deal with your complaint immediately. If this is not possible, we will acknowledge your complaint within five business days of receiving it. If we cannot solve your complaint within four weeks of receiving it, we will write and let you know the reasons why and the action we will take.

If we cannot solve our differences, we will send you a 'final response' letter. You can then take your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). They will then liaise with us for you and tell you their decision. Contacting the FOS does not affect your right to take legal action against us. Their address is: South Quay Plaza, 183 Marsh Wall, London E14 9SR. Phone: 0845 080 1800.

Section 1 – Personal belongings

This section covers your baggage against loss, theft, breakage or damage while you are away from home. There are limits in this section that may not be enough for expensive items such as jewellery and photographic or video equipment. However, you can usually insure these items separately under the 'All Risks' extension of your home insurance.

Be aware!

You must look after your belongings, in particular, your valuables and your Personal money.

- You should carry these items on you, or secure them in baggage which stays with you at all times (not in suitcases to be checked in).
- Or you should leave them in your locked personal accommodation, a locked safety deposit box or a locked safe.
- You should never leave Valuables or Personal money on a beach or under a towel or sunbed, no matter how well hidden.

- You should not leave Valuables or Personal money in an unattended pushchair or buggy or in unattended coats or jackets. If you may hand these to someone else, for example, in a restaurant, you should first remove any items of value.

If you do not take reasonable precautions to protect your property, we may not pay your claim.

We will pay you up to a total of £1,000 (for the total life of your policy, not for each trip or for each incident) for your personal belongings if they are damaged, lost, stolen or destroyed.

- The single item limit for Personal possessions is £250.
- The total limit for all your Valuables is also £250.

Conditions

- You must keep your tickets and luggage tags and report any loss or theft within 24 hours to the police or to carriers if the loss or damage has happened during the journey. You must also get a police report form or a carrier's property irregularity report form within seven days.
- You must meet the carrier's conditions of carriage.
- You must not abandon any property to us.
- You must provide receipts for any lost or stolen items you are claiming for. These receipts must show the price of the item and the date and place you bought it.

Exclusions

We will not pay for loss, theft, breakage or damage to:

- valuables carried in backpacks or other luggage unless they are with you at all times;
- valuables which are not with you, left in your locked personal accommodation or stored in a locked safety deposit box or locked safe;
- valuables left in an unattended motor vehicle;
- valuables left in a hotel courtesy store or storage room;
- personal belongings which you have left unattended, unless they are locked in your personal accommodation, a locker or the secure area of a motor vehicle and there is evidence of someone using force to break in;
- films, tapes, cassettes, cartridges or discs which you have used, other than for their value as unused material;
- food items, bottles or cartons and their contents, and goods likely to rot, or any damage caused by these items;
- contact or corneal lenses, hearing aids and dentures;
- personal belongings caused by wear and tear, loss of value, moths, vermin or any cleaning, repairing or restoring process;
- sports equipment in use;
- anything shipped as freight;
- winter sports equipment;

- property which is specifically insured by another policy.

We will not pay for cracked, scratched or broken glass (other than lenses in cameras, binoculars, telescopes or spectacles), china or similar fragile articles.

Settling your claim

For each item of your Personal belongings that is lost or damaged during your journey, we will decide whether to:

- pay the cost of replacing it or part of a set as new; or
- replace the item or part of a set as new; or
- pay the cost of repairing the item or part of a set; or
- make a cash payment to you.

We will decide which of the above options is most suitable. We will not pay the cost of replacing any other pieces that form part of a set.

Wear and tear

We will take an amount from any claim we pay to allow for wear and tear. This applies to claims involving:

- clothing (including sports clothing); and
- any item or part which is not replaced or repaired.

Excess

The excess is £50 for each person.

Section 2 – Personal money

This section covers your travel money against loss or theft. If you make a claim, you will need to provide evidence that you had the money, so please keep any receipts you have.

If your money is lost or stolen and you report it to the police, we will pay a single emergency cash advance of up to £100 for each insured adult, for each incident. You must then repay this amount to us when you return home or we can take it from the amount we pay for your claim.

We will not offer a cash advance under any other circumstances

Please note the advice given under the heading 'Be aware!' in section 1 – 'Personal belongings', as it applies to this section also.

We will pay you up to £500 if your Personal money is lost or stolen while you are on your journey.

- The cash or bank note limit is £250 for each adult and £100 for each child.

Conditions:

- You must report any loss to the police within 24 hours of discovering it and you must get a written police report.
- If we ask, you must show us confirmation of the amount of foreign currency you have lost or had stolen. In the case of sterling, you must provide documents to prove that you had the money.

Exclusions

- We will not pay for loss or theft of Personal money unless you were carrying it with you or there is evidence that someone has broken into your safety deposit box or locked personal accommodation.
- We will not pay for loss or theft of Personal money in the form of travellers' cheques or credit cards.
- We will not pay for loss or theft of Personal money left in a hotel courtesy store or storage room.

Excess

The excess is £50 for each person.

Section 3 – Emergency medical and travel expenses abroad

This section allows you to receive essential emergency medical treatment if you fall ill or are injured in an accident while you are abroad. You can then either continue with your journey or, if medically necessary, be brought back to your home in the UK for further medical treatment.

If you need more than simple outpatient treatment of the sort that you can pay for locally, you should call the Assistance service for help and advice. Please beware of excessive treatment charges and remember that this is not private health insurance. If you are in any doubt, please call us for advice. You can find the phone numbers for the Assistance service on page 20 of this booklet.

You must tell the Assistance service immediately if you are likely to be admitted to hospital for any reason. Many hospitals will not begin treatment until the costs have been guaranteed. If your condition is serious, we will bring you home to the UK as soon as the medical adviser considers that you are fit enough to travel safely.

Remember:

After you have paid for this policy, you must tell us if you are diagnosed with:

- any heart condition, any circulatory condition (problems with blood flow, including high blood pressure) or any breathing condition (including asthma);
- any type of cancer;
- any joint and bone condition;
- any gastrointestinal (stomach) condition; or
- diabetes.

We will then decide if we can provide you with cover on your existing terms. We may ask you to pay an extra premium, add special conditions to the policy or exclude cover for that medical condition.

If we cannot provide cover for the medical condition diagnosed after you paid for the policy, or if you do not want to pay the extra premium, you can call us on 0845 246 0415 and make a cancellation claim if you have booked and paid for a journey that you have not yet made. Or, you can cancel your policy and we will send you a pro-rata refund, as long as you have not travelled or made a claim.

We will pay costs up to £5,000,000 for continuous medical and travel expenses while abroad that are necessary for up to 12 months as a result of you becoming physically ill or injured.

We will pay:

1. usual, reasonable and necessary emergency expenses for medical, surgical and hospital charges (including emergency dental treatment to treat sudden pain only);
2. the costs of returning you to the UK;
3. economy travel and accommodation expenses of up to £2,000 (including a daily allowance of £25 a day for meals, phone calls and travel) for one person, who is a resident of the UK, to stay with or travel to and stay with you;
4. an allowance of £25 a day for meals, phone calls and travel after you are discharged from hospital and before we bring you back to the UK; and
5. up to £2,500 for funeral expenses abroad or for the extra costs of returning your remains to your home in the UK.

You must provide us with valid receipts for both 3 and 4 above.

Conditions

- You must not be travelling against medical advice or specifically to get medical treatment.
- You must not have been diagnosed with a terminal illness before travelling.
- You must not be waiting for medical treatment as a hospital inpatient or day-patient before we issued this policy unless we know about it and have accepted it in writing.
- You must give our Assistance service full details as soon as you know of a medical emergency.
- You must accept our decisions about the most suitable, practical and reasonable solutions to any medical emergency.

Exclusions

We will not pay for any claim directly or indirectly resulting from:

- treatment or help provided in the UK;
- non-emergency treatment, tests or surgery (including cosmetic surgery) that is not directly related to the illness or injury which causes you to go into hospital;
- surgery or medical treatment that the medical adviser believes is not essential or could wait until you return to the UK;
- treatment or help which the medical adviser believes was provided after you first became able to return to the UK;
- any treatment or help where, given your physical or mental condition you should not have travelled or it would have been reasonable for you to have consulted your medical practitioner, prior to booking or taking your trip, about whether or not it was appropriate to travel;

- an anticipated event;
- the extra cost of single or private accommodation in a hospital or clinic;
- any expenses which we have not agreed to for inpatient treatment or bringing you home;
- medication which you need at the time of your departure and which you know you will have to continue abroad;
- dental work involving the use of precious metals;
- treatment or services provided by a spa, nursing home or rehabilitation centre;
- the standard of medical treatment you received from the medical service provider;
- the medical service provider not providing any necessary treatment;
- you not getting necessary emergency medical treatment;
- any expenses over £50 relating to extended parking fees, kennel or cattery costs as a result of a medical claim overseas where your return to the UK is delayed;
- the cost of phone calls, faxes or other telecommunications unless we agree otherwise, other than those covered under Section 3, points 3 and 4, or for the cost of the initial call to the 24-hour Emergency Assistance Service; or
- the cost of any 'well person' medical checks, tests or examinations.

Excess

The excess is £50 for each person.

Section 4 – Cancelling or cutting short (curtailment) a journey

This section covers your expenses if you have to cancel, change or cut short your journey because of a stay in hospital, or if someone has fallen ill or died.

If you need to change or cut short your journey or you expect to have to extend your stay abroad because of an illness or injury, you must tell the Assistance Company immediately and before you make any travel or treatment arrangements.

We will pay you up to a total of £3,000 for claims under this section if you cannot travel as planned or have to return home early as a result of the death or serious injury or illness of:

- you;
- a companion your travel depends on; or
- a member of your immediate family.

Part one – Before you travel

Changing your departure

We will pay up to £1,500 for any administration or cancellation charges for:

- changing your tickets to a new departure date; and
- changing the dates for any accommodation you have already booked;

as long as:

- your journey is delayed for a month or less; and
- you supply us with medical evidence showing that you were not fit to travel at that time and that you are now fit to travel.

Cancelling your journey

If you have to cancel your journey, we will pay you up to £3,000 for your personal accommodation and transport charges that you cannot get back from any other source. We will only pay the charges that would have applied when you first realised you needed to cancel.

Part two – While you are away

Cutting short your journey

If you have to return home early, we will pay up to £3,000 for any personal accommodation and transport charges which you do not use but that you have already booked and paid or agreed to pay.

We will also pay up to £500 for extra transport costs to take you home and then bring you back if you have to interrupt your journey to return home to retake exams which you need to get into university. This does not apply to any other reasons listed under this section.

Conditions

These conditions apply to parts one and two.

- Neither you, nor anyone else the journey depends on, must have been diagnosed with a terminal illness before the journey was booked.
- You must not be waiting for medical treatment as a hospital inpatient or day-patient before the start of this policy unless we know about it and have agreed it in writing.
- You must give the Assistance service full details as soon as you know of an incident that may lead you to cut short your journey.
- You must accept our decisions about the most suitable, practical and reasonable solution to the problem.
- You must provide us (at your expense) with medical information confirming that you saw a registered Doctor in addition to clearly stating the medical reasons for cancelling or cutting short (curtailment) your journey.
- After you have paid for this policy, you must tell us if you are diagnosed with:
 - any heart condition, any circulatory condition (problems with blood flow, including high blood pressure) or any breathing condition (including asthma);
 - any type of cancer;
 - any joint and bone condition;
 - any gastrointestinal (stomach) condition; or
 - diabetes.

We will then decide if we can provide you with cover on your existing terms. We may ask you to pay an extra premium, add special conditions to the policy or exclude cover for that medical condition.

If we cannot provide cover for the medical condition diagnosed after you paid for the policy, or if you do not want to pay the extra premium, you can call us on 0845 246 0415 and make a cancellation claim if you have booked and paid for a journey that you have not yet made. Or, you can cancel your policy and we will send you a pro-rata refund, as long as you have not travelled or made a claim.

Exclusions

These exclusions apply to parts one and two. We will not pay for claims caused by:

- you not having the correct passport or visa;
- you not wanting to travel or not enjoying the journey;
- the transport operator or their agents refusing to transport you, a member of your immediate family or your travelling companion because they consider that you or they are not fit to travel;
- any treatment or help where, given your physical or mental condition you should not have travelled or it would have been reasonable for you to have consulted your medical practitioner, prior to booking or taking your trip, about whether or not it was appropriate to travel;
- an anticipated event;
- any other costs involved in you returning to or from your journey destination, or other replacement travel and accommodation arrangements;
- travel or accommodation expenses which the Assistance service has not agreed to;
- any incident where you do not have a medical certificate from the doctor treating you abroad which says that you need to return home early;
- unemployment that you were aware of before you booked your journey or before you bought your insurance; and
- the cost of unused original travel tickets where the Assistance service has arranged and paid for you to come home early.

Excess

The excess is £50 for each person (£10 for loss of deposit only claims).

Section 5 – Personal accident

If you are physically injured on a journey and the injury is caused by violent, visible, external and accidental means only, we will pay you or your legal representatives one of the following benefits.

Benefit 1 – up to £10,000 if your injury leads to death or total and permanent loss of sight or physical loss of limb.

Benefit 2 – up to £25,000 if you are permanently disabled and cannot carry out any paid work at all after two years from the date of the accident because of this injury.

Exclusions

We will not pay:

- more than one benefit for the same incident; and
- more than £1,500 under benefit 1 if you are under 16 at the time of the accident.

Section 6 – Personal liability

If we agree in writing, we will pay up to £2,000,000 for each policy that you are legally responsible for as a result of an incident you have caused during a journey that leads to:

1. death or physical injury to any person; or
2. accidental loss of or damage to property that:
 - does not belong to you or any member of your family; or
 - is not in the charge or control of you or a member of your family.

We will not pay for any costs we have not agreed in writing.

Exclusions

We will not pay claims that result from:

- your deliberate actions or failure to act;
- your job or that of a member of your family;
- an agreement unless the liability would have existed without that agreement;
- claims made by your family or an employee of you or your family, another insured person or a travelling companion;
- you owning, handling or looking after any animal;
- you acting as the leader of a group taking part in an activity; or
- you owning or using a firearm, an aircraft or a horse-drawn, waterborne, motorised, mechanical or towed vehicle.

Excess

The excess is £50 for each person.

Section 7 – If you lose your passport

If you lose your passport during your journey, we will pay you up to £250 for reasonable extra travel and accommodation costs abroad while you arrange a replacement.

Exclusions

We will not pay for any claim unless you report the loss to the police or British Consular Representative within 24 hours of discovering it.

Section 8 – Legal assistance

The 24-hour phone number for practical UK legal advice in connection with your journey and for reporting a legal assistance claim is 0870 240 0285 (+44 870 240 0285 from abroad).

We will pay

- Up to £50,000 for legal costs to help you claim damages or compensation:
 - for injury, illness or death, which happens during your journey; or
 - following a dispute about an agreement you have for your journey.
- Up to £250 for the first consultation that you arrange with a local solicitor if you are arrested or held by authorities during your journey.

We will only pay for legal assistance if:

- any legal proceedings are carried out within the UK or within the geographical region by a court or other organisation that we agree to; and
- it is always more likely than not that you will be successful with your claim.

What is not covered

We will not pay:

- to defend your legal rights in claims against you;
- any claim resulting from any illness or injury that develops gradually or is not caused by a specific or sudden accident;
- for actions between insured people (in other words, people insured on the same policy trying to make a claim against each other);
- legal costs and expenses that arose before we agreed to support your claim;
- claims reported more than 180 days after the date you knew about or should have known about the incident leading to the claim;
- legal costs if you stop or settle a claim, or withdraw instructions from the solicitor, without good reason. If this applies, you will then have to refund any costs and expenses we have paid or agreed to pay during your claim; or
- any fines, penalties, compensation or damages which you are ordered to pay by a court or other organisation.

Conditions

If you do not keep to the following conditions, we may refuse any claim and withdraw from any current claim.

You must do the following:

- give us full details of your claim and any other information that we or the solicitor ask you for;
- tell us about any developments affecting your claim;
- tell us if the solicitor refuses to continue to act for you or if you withdraw your instructions;
- tell us if anyone makes a payment into court or offers to settle your claim;

- try to get back costs that we have to pay, and pay them to us;
- get our agreement in writing before you try to negotiate or settle a claim; and
- co-operate fully with the solicitor and us, and not do anything that might harm your claim.

If we ask, you must tell the solicitor to give us any documents or information that they have or know about.

Appointing a solicitor

- If we accept your claim, we or a solicitor we appoint will try to negotiate a settlement without having to go to court.
- If it is necessary to take your claim to court, or if there is a conflict of interests, you have the right to choose the solicitor who acts for you. Otherwise, we will appoint a solicitor to act for you.
- We or you will appoint a solicitor to act for you in line with our standard terms of appointment (ask us if you want a copy).
- You must not agree any charges with the solicitor without getting our permission first.
- If a solicitor refuses to continue acting for you with good reason, or if you dismiss them without good reason, your cover will end immediately unless we agree to appoint another solicitor.

You must tell your solicitor to do the following:

- Get our written permission before instructing a barrister or an expert witness.
- Tell us immediately if it is no longer more likely than not that you will be successful with your claim.

We can do the following:

- Contact the solicitor at any time, and they must co-operate fully with us at all times.
- Decide to settle your claim by paying the amount in dispute.
- Refuse to pay any more legal costs if you do not accept a reasonable offer to settle your claim.
- Refuse to pay any more legal costs if it is no longer more likely than not that you will be successful with your claim.

Disputes

You have the right to refer any disagreement between you and us to arbitration (where an independent person, known as an arbitrator, makes a decision to settle the dispute). The arbitrator will be a solicitor, barrister or other suitably qualified person that you and we agree on. If we cannot agree, the arbitrator will be chosen by the president of the Law Society (or other similar organisation) for that part of the UK or geographical region whose law governs this section of the policy. We and you must keep to the arbitrator's decision. Whoever loses the arbitration will pay for all the costs and expenses of the arbitration. You may also refer any disagreement between you and us to the Financial Ombudsman Service, which is a service offered to you free of charge. (See page 7 for details of our complaints procedure.)

Section 9 – Disaster cover

The most we will pay for each claim is £1,000. This is a new section of cover and is not shown on your schedule. The excess is £50 for each person.

If, during your trip, you can no longer stay at your pre-booked and prepaid accommodation because of:

- fire;
- lightning;
- explosion;
- earthquake;
- tidal wave;
- storm;
- avalanche;
- hurricane;
- flood; or
- medical epidemic or pandemic;

we will pay the necessary extra travel and accommodation expenses to allow you to continue with your trip, or return to the UK if you cannot continue with your trip.

Exclusions

We will not pay for any claim directly or indirectly resulting from:

- you changing your mind to travel or continue with your trip when the local or national authorities confirm that it is safe to stay;
- expenses you can recover from elsewhere; or

See also the 'General exclusions' and 'General conditions' sections.

Conditions

- You must send us:
- the original booking invoices and travel documents showing the dates and times of travel; and written confirmation from the local or national authority of the area where the catastrophe happened.

get compensation. The legislation is restricted to goods sold for more than £100 and less than £30,000.

The Insurer will pay up to £5,000 in total for each insured person named on the booking invoice for:

PROVIDED THAT in the case of a) and b) above, where practicable you shall have obtained the approval of IPP prior to incurring the relevant costs by contacting IPP as set out in the claims procedure below.

Exclusions

- the insolvency or other financial failure of the travel, accommodation or other end supplier whose services were not booked from within the UK;
- the insolvency or other financial failure of:
 - a. any travel, accommodation or other end supplier (or that of a provider of any other component part of your journey) where at the time of the booking or taking out of this insurance (whichever is later) you could have reasonably been expected to know of a reason why the service could not be provided due to the end supplier's insolvency or other financial failure. (For example, where there is significant media coverage in the UK about the provider's insolvency or other financial failure or where you find out about the insolvency or other financial failure prior to booking.)
 - b. any travel, accommodation or other end supplier who is bonded or insured elsewhere (even if the bond is insufficient to meet the claim).
 - c. any travel agent, tour organiser, booking agent or consolidator with whom the insured has booked travel, accommodation or the services of any other end supplier.

Serious medical emergency or cutting short your journey

Contact the Assistance service as soon as possible. Where reasonably possible, you must contact the Assistance service before you go to a doctor or hospital to receive emergency treatment. Give the Assistance service your name, policy number, address, contact number abroad and the name and phone number of the doctor or hospital treating you (if you are already at a hospital).

The Assistance service will help you get the care or assistance you need by directing or transferring you to a medical service provider in the local medical network, contacting your family in the UK or arranging emergency transport home, where appropriate.

The Assistance service will talk to the medical service provider and arrange to pay your insured expenses direct if possible. The Assistance service will ask the medical service provider to bill all insured medical expenses direct to us, not to you. Please keep receipts for any expenses you pay.

All heart or circulatory procedures, including invasive or aggressive treatment, must be approved in advance by the medical adviser and Assistance service. Please beware of excessive treatment charges. If you are in any doubt, please call us for advice or ask someone else to call us for you.

If your condition is serious, the Assistance service will arrange for you to be brought home to the UK as soon as the medical adviser considers that you are fit enough to travel safely. If the Assistance service decides you are medically able to return to the UK and you choose not to return, we will not pay any extra expenses for your continued treatment and care or medical complications following emergency treatment.

This is not private medical insurance. If you require emergency treatment you must inform the Assistance Service immediately otherwise we may be unable to pay your medical expenses.

WHEN YOU RETURN HOME – PHONE 0845 246 0415

For all other claims (other than legal expenses) under this policy, you should call Direct Line Travel Claims when you get home. We will take details of your claim over the phone and may send you a claim form to fill in. We will also ask you to send us certain documents to support your claim.

For legal assistance claims, call Direct Line on 0870 240 0285 for help from our specialist staff.

Personal possessions and money

You must report all losses to the police within 24 hours and get a written report from them. You should also report the loss to your holiday representative and accommodation manager where appropriate. If something is lost or damaged during your journey, you should report it to the carrier and get a property irregularity report form from them. Please keep your tickets and baggage check-in labels.

We will need to see receipts for any lost or stolen items you are claiming for. These receipts must show the price of the item and the date and place you bought it.

If you are claiming for lost Personal money, we will need to see foreign currency exchange receipts or, for sterling, documents to prove that you withdrew the money before your departure.

Settling claims

If the documents you provide to support your claim do not include the currency exchange rate used, we will work out how much to pay you using the Royal Bank of Scotland exchange rates that applied on the date of the loss.

Personal liability

You must never admit liability or take any action without our permission. Please let us know immediately about any developments relating to your claim. You must provide us with full details and any supporting evidence you have.

Personal accident

We will need to see a medical certificate from the doctor treating you. If someone insured by this policy dies, we will need to see a copy of the death certificate and any other relevant documents.

If you lose your passport

We will need to see a letter or receipt from the British Embassy or Consulate where you report the loss. You must also keep receipts for any costs you have to pay to while arranging a replacement passport.
